Burglary Arrests

East Fallowfield, Pa: On Thursday morning, February 7, 2008, at approximately 3:40 a.m. the owner of a rental property in the 300 block of Strode Avenue called Chester County 9-1-1 and reported that her tenant called her and said that someone broke into an utility room in the apartment building. The tenant was hearing a banging noise. East Fallowfield police officers assisted by Coatesville City police and Valley Township police responded to the address. Upon arrival, officers found two males hiding inside the room. They were taken into custody without incident and transported to Coatesville PD to be detained. Investigation revealed that the suspects had pried off the padlock securing the utility room, entered the room and were stealing copper pipe from the plumbing system. The suspects were identified as Mr. Scott A. Morgan, age 20, and Mr. Stephen A. Kitchen, age 21, both residents of East Fallowfield Township. They will be arraigned later today at District Court in Parkesburg.
